

Ever since cars have existed, we create safe mobility for people. More than 7.000 employees worldwide together take on for one goal:

WE.MOVE.FUTURE.

As family-run medium sized development supplier of the automotive industry, we offer various interesting tasks, extensive opportunities for further training and concrete career prospects. Our site offers a pleasant working and living environment.

APQP - Engineer

at our site in Attendorn

THESE ARE YOUR BASIC TASKS

- » Set of important features in common with our customers
- » Implementation of process FMEA
- » Design of component-specific gauges
- » Development of control plans for pre-series and series
- » Implementation and analysis of process capability studies
- » Tracking the quality level of prototypes, pilot production parts and initial samples
- » Communication with the customer to transfer to mass production

WE EXPECT FROM YOU

- » Training for technicians, mechanical engineering - Manufacturing Technology
- » Experience in the task described fields
- » The motivation to assist in a manageable team projects to mass production
- » Willingness to travel
- » Good English skills

KIRCHHOFF Automotive Deutschland GmbH | Mr Dirk Schütz | Am Eckenbach 10 – 14 | 57439 Attendorn | GERMANY
T +49 2722 696 371 | F +49 2722 696 219 | d.schuetz@kirchhoff-gruppe.de | www.kirchhoff-group.com

