

MACHINE AND PLANT OPERATOR

Duties and responsibilities of machine and plant operators are installation, armature and handling of machines and plants. They prepare procedures, check machine functions and put engines on stream. Furthermore, they accomplish inspections, support other workers with the machine care and supervise the production process and the flow of material.

If the apprentice improves in the vocational training he gets the possibility to start a 3,5 years apprenticeship (industrial mechanic, tool mechanic).

---

Apprenticeship

Duration: 2 years

Dual system: attendance at vocational school once or twice a week

---

Major tasks

Installation, commission and handling of machines and plants

---

Prerequisites

- ⦿ Leastwise good Secondary General School class 10 A
  - ⦿ Technical interest
  - ⦿ Physical strain
  - ⦿ Interests in controlling tasks
  - ⦿ Ability to work in a team
  - ⦿ Technical aptitude
-

Requirements profile

Interaction with technics

Interaction with IT systems

Independence and ability to organize
Creativity
Economy
Ability to work as part of a team

---

Apprenticeship training positions

KIRCHHOFF Automotive has vacancies for four apprentices at its locations in Attendorn and Iserlohn in every year.

---

Apprenticeship locations and contact persons

KIRCHHOFF Automotive
Deutschland GmbH
Am Eckenbach 10-14
57439 Attendorn
GERMANY

KIRCHHOFF Automotive
KIRCHHOFF Witte GmbH
Hegestück 40
58640 Iserlohn
GERMANY

Michael Isphording
Responsible for apprenticeship
Phone: +49 2722 696 205
Email: m.isphording@kirchhoffgruppe.de

Stefan Jeziorski
Responsible for apprenticeship
Phone: +49 2371 211 652
Email: s.jeziorski@kirchhoff-gruppe.de

---